

ALLOY LED

Better Living Through Better Lighting

At Alloy LED, we recognize that supporting diversity, equality and inclusion is not only the right thing to do, it is the right thing to do for our business. This commitment is woven into our values as a company, and we recognize that our company is strongest when we are a company of opportunity that embraces the full spectrum of humanity.

At Alloy LED we encourage everyone to be themselves as we believe diversity builds strength. Alloy LED supports equity and inclusion across race, gender, age, religion, identity and orientation. Alloy LED strictly condemns all forms of violence. We are an international company made up of international people from around the world and respect and welcome these diverse contributors that makes Alloy LED such a great community to be a part of.

A company is only as good as the people that make up the company. Alloy is proud to be a company that is currently comprised by a majority of women, with a majority of its management team made up of women.
